DESTROYED BY FIRE. Farm Buildings Relonging to A. W. Withers Are Burned.

Withers Are Burned.

(Special Phe Times-Dispatch.]

Gloucester, Va., August 23.—The stable, corn house and carriage house at Upper Severnby, belonging to A. W. Withers, of Gloucester, caught are this afternoen and were totally destroyed together with hay and straw stored in the buildings. Some of the farming implements were saved. The house would have caught on fire except for the help of neighbors, who gathered and quickly formed a bucket brigade. As it was, one of the wines had to be torn from the main building. The fire was evidently caused by spontaneous combustion, although the hay was well cured and had been in for some weeks. The loss was $1,500, and there was no insurance.
